Q logical first step to wedding planning is the guest list. Many wedding planners advise newly engaged couples to immediately begin assembling a guest list because it impacts several key decisions in the planning foray.

How to create a wedding guest list

According to local wedding planners, the number of guests a couple is planning to invite factors into the location they need to reserve. The next step after developing a preliminary guest list is to find the location. Lake County features more than two dozen locations that are perfect for wedding ceremonies and receptions.

While most guest lists start large, it is important that couples remain realistic about how many people they can afford to invite. Remember each person can add significantly to the bottom line. Sometimes less people can equal grander allowances in other aspects of the celebration, such as the meal, entertainment or decorations.

While easier said than done, cutting down or minimizing the first draft of a guest list can be a trying task. An easy way to keep the list in check is to restrict it to close friends and family. In large families, deciding who stays and goes on the roster can be stressful to the couple and their parents.

Friends & Family

Traditionally, the invitations are split evenly between the two families.

Couples may find it difficult in cutting down or minimizing a guest list. It is important to remember that the makeup of a guest list can determine much about a wedding. Inviting children can affect location decisions. More planning time is needed for a larger contingency of out-of-state guests so they are able to reserve airline tickets and accommodations. Also, remember this about out-of-state invites: Lake County's sunny disposition is reason alone to attend a wedding.

Local wedding planners say they find in the Central Florida area the guest list return is a lot higher than what is expected in other areas. This is because many people view this area as a vacation getaway. People that typically will not fly out-of-state for a wedding will fly out-of-state because Florida is such a great location.

Choosing a location for the wedding ceremony and reception is quite possibly the biggest decision an engaged couple can make. There are so many different places to host a wedding — church, reception hall, hotel — choosing the perfect venue can be difficult.

Choosing the perfect venue

Couples are encouraged to select a wedding location at least 12 months in advance. If there is less time to prepare, you might need to be more flexible in choosing the date or venue. A preliminary guest list is needed to determine the wedding location. First count the number of essential invites. This will give a good idea of what size of venue will be required for the reception.

Envision what you want the wedding to feel like and plan accordingly. Following are two groups of examples for wedding venues in Lake County; the classical and unique. For a more complete list of event locations, see page 24.

LAKESIDE INN

Steeped with 120 years of history, Lakeside Inn of Mount Dora has the romantic feel of a simpler era, yet offers the conveniences of modern times. The Inn's yellow-splashed buildings offer 89 guest rooms, and six outdoor and five indoor venues for wedding ceremonies and receptions.

Within walking distance from the historic downtown of Mount Dora, many guests shop at boutiques and enjoy the setting of the European-flavored villa. Wedding coordinators and photographers will love the Inn's setting. With flower-lined paths, a romantic gingerbread-trimmed gazebo set against shimmering Lake Dora, an Old South style verandah and green lawns, Lakeside Inn provides the perfect backdrop for those special matrimony snapshots.

Other enchanting inns: The Duncan House of Tavares, Old Bicycle Inn of Clermont, Heron Cay Lakeview Bed & Breakfast of Mount Dora

Classic

MISSION INN RESORT & CLUB

The plush estate of Mission Inn Resort & Club offers a full range of wedding options, including enchanting courtyard ceremonies. While resorts are synonymous to Florida, Mission Inn breaks the mold with its tranquil setting of a peaceful plantation nestled in the small Town of Howey-in-the-Hills. With its Spanish-Mediterranean style architecture, the resort is perfect for a romantic wedding in the evergreen slopes surrounding the serene community. One of the largest venues in Lake County, Mission Inn's conference room provides a luxurious reception site.

Other luxurious golf courses with wedding amenities: County Club of Mount Dora, Sanctuary Ridge Golf Club of Clermont, Harbor Hills Country Club of Lady Lake, Legends Golf and Country Club of Clermont, Mount Dora Golf Club

LEESBURG OPERA HOUSE

This historic downtown building was the original opera house for Leesburg in the 1880s. The quaint upstairs reception hall is stately with rustic brick walls and hardwood floor and ceiling. Locals claim this is one of the prettiest wedding locations in town because with its historic feel couples can do so much with it to make a beautiful backdrop for a wedding. The 3,500-square-foot hall can accommodate about 220 guests for a banquet. A highlight of the opera house is the refurbished 19th century bar that was salvaged from the Washington Hotel in Indianapolis.

Other romantic reception halls: Lake Receptions of Mount Dora, Clermont Garden Club, Silver Lake Banquets & Receptions of Leesburg

Unique

HICKORY POINT RECREATIONAL FACILITY

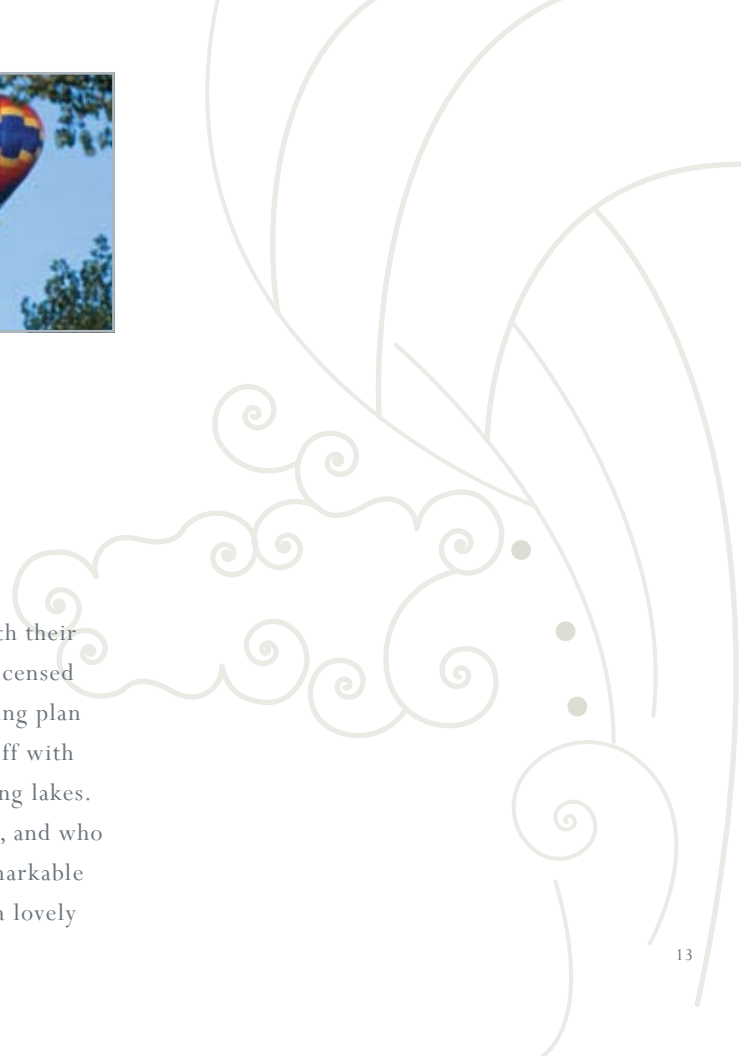

Parks can be popular locations for weddings, but few offer the range of amenities similar to Hickory Point Recreational Facility in Tavares. Created as a unique, recreational waterfront park, the 68-acre facility is located on Lake Harris. The highlight of Hickory Point is its two-story, screened picnic pavilion with first-floor picnic tables and barbecue grills. The second floor features two screened-in banquet rooms that are ideal for wedding receptions. The pavilion also has a kitchen workspace with countertops and a sink. The pavilion can accommodate small groups or large gatherings of up to 275 people.

Exciting

ROHR BALLOONS

Rohr Balloons of Mount Dora has helped more than 90 couples with their lofty dreams of wedding ceremony bliss. Owner Chuck Rohr is a licensed minister, as well as a pilot. He helps couples customize each wedding plan to their taste. Some prefer to host the ceremony just before take-off with family and friends; others exchange vows as they float over sparkling lakes. A few couples choose to do both scenarios reciting their vows twice, and who can blame them. Experiencing the colorful canopy above and a remarkable view everywhere else, the bride and groom can exchange vows in a lovely flower-drenched wicker basket.

It is time to celebrate the marriage. The honeymoon is a special time for the couple, but not every post-matrimony adventure needs to be an expensive affair.

Planning a Lake County honeymoon

While spending quality time together is important to remember, there are many factors to consider when planning an enjoyable honeymoon. When researching a honeymoon destination, consider if it offers nearby fine restaurants, fun-filled attractions and an overall romantic ambience.

With its quaint downtowns and endless acres of nature preserves, a peaceful and picturesque honeymoon is awaiting newlyweds in Lake County. With so many options, couples can choose the best of both worlds in Lake County; natural Florida fun and hometown charm.

Following are just two samples of an ideal honeymoon in Lake County. For more information about planning a honeymoon in Lake County, visit the Lake County Welcome Center, located at 20763 U.S. Highway 27, Groveland, call (800) 430-LAKE, or log on to www.lakecountyfl.com.

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN OF MOUNT DORA

One of the best romantic getaways in all of Central Florida is downtown Mount Dora. With its streets lined with New England architectural, this hilly destination overlooks the breathtaking view of Lake Dora.

Romantic accommodations in Mount Dora include more than a dozen different bed and breakfast inns located within walking distance of the downtown district. These B&Bs, such as Mount Dora Historic Inn and Coconut Cottage Inn Bed & Breakfast, offer peaceful lodging and are a frequent attraction for honeymooners and couples celebrating anniversaries.

On the lake, many honeymooners enjoy romantic day cruises along the Dora Canal, which was penned in the 1930s by a leading sports writer as “the most beautiful mile of water in the world.” Capt. Doolittle Boat Tours offers day tours, evening excursions to a lakeside restaurant, or moonlight cruises with bubbly champagne.

Grantham Point and Palm Island Park with its unique lakeside hiking trail and boardwalk is a picture-perfect spot for a sunset stroll. In all, the city features more than a dozen parks, many offering quiet moments for adoring couples. Other intimate features of the downtown include antique train excursions with Florida Rail Adventures and horse-drawn carriage rides.

Perhaps the dreamiest characteristic of Mount Dora is simply its downtown. With fine restaurants, antique shops and art galleries lining its streets, Mount Dora provides a wonderful romantic backdrop.

THE NATURAL BEAUTY OF LAKE LOUISA

A honeymoon of outdoor adventures doesn't have to be rustic. A new style of luxurious cabins at the 4,500-acre Lake Louisa State Park in Clermont pales in comparison to the stereotypical rickety cottages.

The cabin amenities trump even some hotels with a spacious master bedroom and a kitchen with all the necessities. Other typical features intentionally missing from the cabins are telephones, televisions, Internet connections, radios and clocks. But these are mere distractions for couples exploring their love and the state park's natural beauty.

Romantic ambience is readymade at the cabins with large screened-in porches overlooking Lake Dixie. On many mornings, couples can warmly embrace on the deck with the glistening sunrise reflecting off the lake and an occasional spotting of a deer or wild turkey. The park is also popular for fishing, canoeing, bird watching and hiking. The 25 miles of trails accommodate hikers and horseback riders.

For dining options visit the nostalgic downtown of Clermont. Nestled between a chain of lakes, this walk-able district with a charming Waterfront Park offers several unique restaurants.

Other experiences needed for any romantic journey through Clermont, also known as the "Gem of the Hills" with elevations ranging between 200 and 330 feet, are a wine-tasting trip to the Lakeridge Winery & Vineyards and an inspiring flight soaring in a piloted glider at Seminole-Lake Gliderport.

Warm climate make for a perfect location

Lake County is located almost directly in the center of the Florida peninsula. This ideal location provides the County with a year-round warm climate and a diverse landscape.

The 14 municipalities of Lake County offer grand vistas from a range of rolling hills. With these spectacular views of Florida's countryside and sparkling lakes, there are multiple locations to suit any wedding celebration.

With monthly average temperatures never dipping below the high 50s, this gentle climate allows for an outdoor ceremony and reception virtually any time of year. For many couples, this is the best reason to plan a wedding in Lake County. This dependable year-round weather greatly increases the chances of outdoor wedding success.

To receive a marriage license in Lake County, visit one of three offices of the Marriage License Division of the Lake County Clerk of Courts. The Division receives marriage applications, issues licenses and performs marriage ceremonies.

The three offices of the Division are: Lake County Public Records Center, 122 E. Main St., Tavares; Clermont Branch Office, 1206 Bowman St., Clermont; North Lake Branch Office, 902 Avenida Central, The Villages. Offices are open Monday through Friday (except legal holidays) from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Clermont and North Lake offices are closed from 12 to 1 p.m.

Walk-ins are accepted for marriage licenses; however, appointments are preferred for marriage ceremonies by calling (352) 253-2648. There is a three-day waiting period — for Florida residents only — after applying for a marriage license. The cost for the license is $93.50 (Cash or check only).

Residents who can provide documentation showing they completed a state-approved marriage preparation course within the year do not have a waiting period. The four-hour course includes instruction of topics such as conflict management, financial and parenting responsibilities. As a bonus, residents who take the course get a reduction of $32.50 off the license fee.

The couple must apply in person for a marriage license. Each person needs to bring their social security number and identification (a driver's license, certified copy of a birth certificate, military ID card, state-issued ID card or passport). A blood test is no longer required. If either party has been previously married, they will need to supply the divorce date and state where the divorce occurred.

Acquiring a marriage license

Marriage licenses are valid for 60 days. Before any official may solemnize a marriage, he or she must require the couple to produce a marriage license. After the ceremony, it is the official's duty to complete the "certificate of marriage" portion of the license and return it to the Clerk's office within 10 days.
