

EARTH DAY • 2009

Saturday, April 18

- PEAR Park, located at 5336 University Ave., Leesburg
- Vendors, food, speakers & entertainment from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- Bird Hikes
8 a.m. & 10 a.m.
guided by Gallus Quigley
- Butterfly Hike
10 a.m.
guided by PEAR Park volunteer

Exhibitors

- Trout Lake Nature Center
- Ocklawaha Valley Audubon
- Lake County Water Authority
- St. Johns River Water Management District
- Florida Fish & Wildlife Conservation Commission
- PEAR Association
- Florida Native Plant Society
- Lake County Public Lands Section
- Lake County Department of Environmental Utilities
- Recycle Maniacs
- Audubon Center for Birds of Prey

Speakers

- "Florida Invasive Plants"
by Lauren Brothers, Environmental Technician with Lake County Public Lands Section
- "Surficial Geology of Central Florida"
by Eugene Bouley with PEAR Association
("Rock Cycle" presentation immediately following)
- "Birding Lake County"
by Gallus Quigley, Park Ranger with Lake County Parks & Trails Division
- "Land Restoration"
by Wendy Poag, Park Ranger with Lake County Parks Trails Division

LAKE COUNTY

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
Parks & Trails Division

For more information, call the Lake County Parks & Trails Division at (352) 253-4950 or e-mail parksandtrails@lakecountyfl.gov.