ADDENDUM NO. ONE
ITB 15-0631 / Agriculture Chemicals
August 19, 2015

It is the vendor's responsibility to ensure their receipt of all addenda, and to clearly acknowledge all addenda within their initial bid response. Acknowledgement may be confirmed either by inclusion of a signed copy of this addendum with the initial bid response, or by completion of the addendum acknowledgement section of the solicitation. Failure to acknowledge each addendum may prevent the bid or proposal from being considered for award.

This addendum does not change the date for receipt of bids.

Questions concerning this solicitation were due August 18, 2015. The purpose of this addendum is to address questions received.

Question 1: There are several new items that are available that I did not see on the bid, in the past there was a page to add bid items - will that be allowed this year?

Answer 1: If you have additional items you can add them on a separate sheet (i.e. company letterhead) at the back of the bid submittal. The items listed are those that our Departments purchased in the past.

Previously, this bid was a co-operative bid that included several agencies. However, the cooperative no longer exists so the current ITB is for Lake County only. However, other agencies may piggy-back and purchase from any resulting contract(s).

The same process should be followed concerning brand names – any exceptions to the listed items are to be explained on a separate sheet, as instructed on page 21, number 2.

Vendor acknowledges receipt and review of this addendum:

POLICY STATEMENT: WORKPLACE HARASSMENT

Policy Statement

Helena Chemical Company has a strong policy prohibiting all types of workplace harassment and is committed to providing a professional environment free from workplace harassment. This is to advise all supervisory personnel and staff that the Company will not tolerate or condone any form of workplace harassment, including sexual harassment or other forms of workplace harassment based on an individual's personal characteristics such as race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age or disability. The Company has policies prohibiting all types of workplace harassment. As an employee of the Company it is your responsibility to be familiar with the Company's policies prohibiting workplace harassment and abide by all the terms contained in such policies.

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is illegal. The Company's policy prohibiting workplace harassment defines sexual harassment as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal and physical conduct of a sexual nature, when :

1. Submission to the conduct is either an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment;
2. Submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for an employment decision affecting the person rejecting or submitting to the conduct; or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an affected person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

As equally important as sexual harassment is workplace harassment based on an individual's race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age or disability. The Company's policy prohibiting workplace harassment defines this type of harassment as verbal or physical conduct that insults or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of his or her race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, or disability, and that:

1. Contributes to or has the effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment;
2. Unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance; or
3. Otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Employees who feel they have been treated unfairly should address their concerns with their supervisor or, if the employee does not feel comfortable addressing the issue with his/her supervisor, the employee may contact Human Resources. The Company also has a toll free Human Resources Hotline 1-866-267-8684 on which complaints of workplace harassment can be made. Once supervisors have been informed of an alleged incident of sexual harassment or any other type of workplace harassment, the supervisor must contact Human Resources so immediate action can be taken.

In response to any claim of sexual or workplace harassment or upon any knowledge of potential sexual or workplace harassment, the Company will conduct a prompt investigation and attempt to determine all the facts concerning the alleged harassment. Investigations will be handled with as much confidentiality as possible and disclosure will be made to others only on a need to know basis. All employees are expected to cooperate fully and honestly in all investigations of sexual or workplace harassment complaints or incidents. Employees who make complaints of sexual or workplace harassment in good faith or who assist in a sexual or workplace harassment investigation will be protected from retaliation. If a confirmed incident of sexual or workplace harassment has occurred action will be taken to effectively stop any such harassment. The Company is prepared to take corrective action, up to and including termination, for any confirmed incidents of sexual or workplace harassment. Thereafter, the Company will monitor any confirmed incidents of sexual or workplace harassment to ensure that the harassment has indeed stopped and that no retaliation is occurring.
