

Participants of the 2016 Lake Regional Envirothon

The Envirothon is a natural resource education competition where students work in teams to answer written questions and conduct hands-on investigations relating to aquatics, forestry, soils, wildlife, and a current environmental issue.

First Place - Lucky Lionfish
Tavares High School, Advisor Betsy Farner

Wildlife Station

First Place - Moonbeam
Lake Preparatory School, Advisor Katrina Palmer

Soils Station